

FOIRE AUX SANTONS

- The Terra Cotta Figurine Fairs, is one of the most famous in Provence. The fair is held on the Avenue Napoléon Bonaparte
- This is a typical shop that can be found in the central square during the Christmas period

CALISSON

- The calisson is a small, distinctive, almond-shaped candy which first appeared in Aix-en-Provence in the fifteenth century, during the reign of Good King René
- Fabrique de calissons is the oldest factory of calisson and it has been operating since 1874

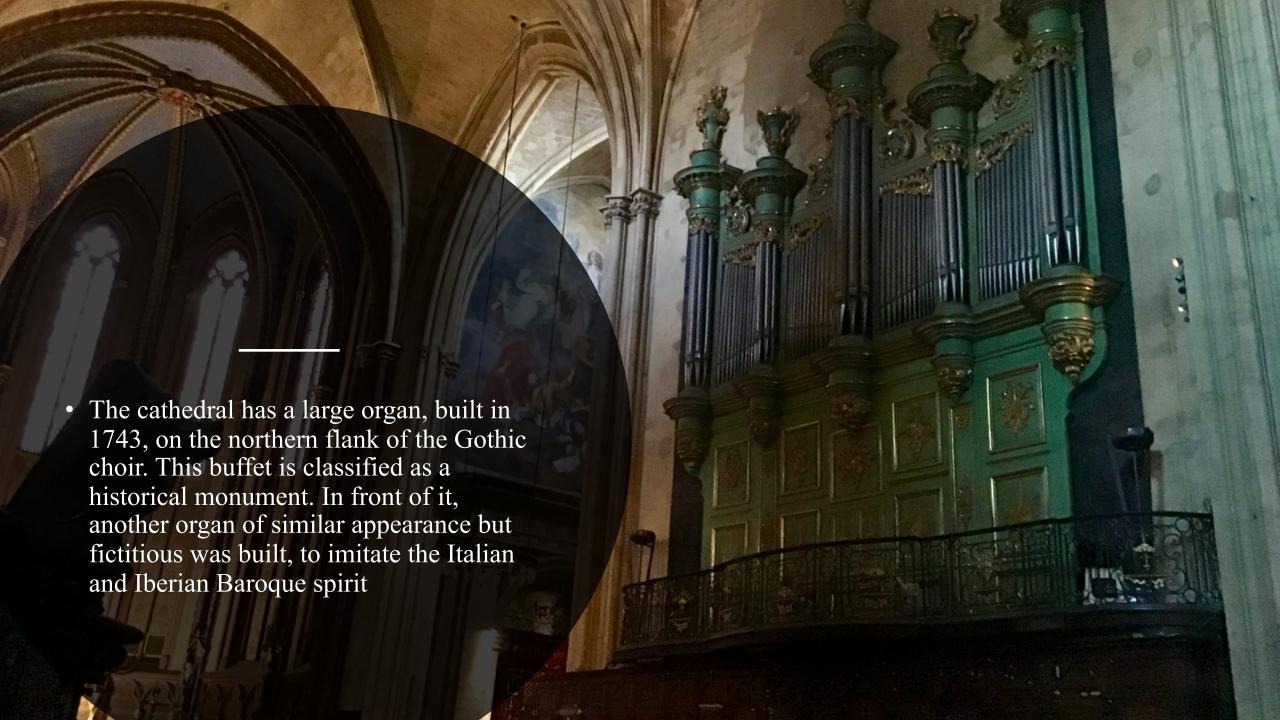

• The cathedral of Saint Savior (in French: Cathé drale Saint-Sauveur) is the main Catholic place of worship in Aix-en-Provenc on the left we can see the octagonal baptistery, crowned in 1579 by the canon Jean de Léone, it has a decorated dome and reused Roman columns

- Hotel de Ville and clock towe
- Cours Mirabeau