

Nice

Cozza Manuela & Nunu Ilaria 4AR

On the last day of our wonderful experience we stopped in Nice, a beautiful city on the French Riviera, in the south of France. We were fascinated by the size and all the views it offers. Here the climate is always warm and very pleasant, so much so that some people were taking advantage to sunbathe on the beach. Nice has given us many emotions even if we did not stay for long and in the future we hope to return.
